February 14, 2018 Seminar Announcement Ethics & Risk Management

Where: Cincinnati Marriott North, West Chester, OH

When: 7:30-8:00am Registration/Continental Breakfast
8:00-12:00pm Seminar (Lunch to Immediately Follow)

Join us for a two-part seminar with speakers Paul Fiorelli with Xavier's Institute for Business Ethics and Eric Teske with Oswald Companies to tackle the questions:

- Why do I care about ethics?
- Why do good engineers do bad things?
- How do I lead my firm through the dynamics of risk in the A/E industry?

This information is useful for business leaders who are looking to reinforce firm values and the importance of managing a firm's liabilities.

Register to experience an engaging workshop that will help you more effectively lead and manage your business.

Paul Fiorelli, J.D., MBA, CCEP

Professor Paul Fiorelli is the Director of the Cintas Institute for Business Ethics at Xavier University. He received both his law and M.B.A. degrees in 1981, and has been a Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional since 2008.

Eric Teske

Vice President of Oswald Companies and formerly a CFO of a medium-sized A/E firm, Eric is a professional liability specialist providing in-house education programs, contract review services and loss prevention to A/E consultants.

Please email Andy Shahan, ashahan@ljbinc.com, with your reservations by noon on Friday, February 9, 2018. Late reservations are not guaranteed, so make your reservations now. We look forward to seeing you there!
