

Ohio Department of Development Director to Deliver Keynote at Engineering Excellence Awards on February 27

ACEC Ohio is thrilled to announce that Lydia Mihalik, Director of the Ohio Department of Development, will be our keynote speaker at the 2025 Engineering Excellence Awards Luncheon on February 27.

The Department of Development is a state agency committed to empowering communities to succeed by investing in the people, places, and businesses of Ohio. Director Mihalik will discuss key topics including broadband access, water infrastructure, job site readiness, and economic development in the state of Ohio.
